

Your right to work

AKMAL KHAN

You have permission to work in the UK until 14 January 2029, subject to the conditions and restrictions below.

Conditions

You must work for the employer who sponsored your current grant of permission to enter or stay.

You can only work in the role for which you are being sponsored.

You can also work in a part-time job (up to 20 hours a week) if it is one of the following:

- the same role as your main job
- on the Shortage Occupation List

Your part-time job must be outside the hours of your main job.

You can also:

- do voluntary work – this is unpaid except for reasonable expenses

- complete the notice period for a job you were doing when you applied

Prove your right to work

To share your details with an employer, you need to create a right to work share code.

Get a share code

If you have a biometric residence card, biometric residence permit, or Frontier Worker permit, you must get a share code to prove your right to work. You cannot use your card or permit as proof.

If any of your details or information on this page is not correct, contact UK Visas and Immigration.